A womanâ€™s disappearance exposes a life of secrets in a twisting novel of psychological suspense from the author of The Memory Watcher.

Meredith Price is the luckiest woman alive. Her husband, Andrew, is a charming and successful financial broker. She has two lovely stepchildren and is living in affluence in a mountain resort town. After three years of marriage, Meredithâ€™s life has become predictable. Until the day she disappears.

Her car has been discovered in a grocery store parking lotâ€™ purse and phone undisturbed on the passenger seat, keys in the ignition, no sign of struggle, and no evidence of foul play. Itâ€™s as if she vanished into thin air.

Itâ€™s not like Meredith to simply abandon her loved ones. And no one in this town would have reason to harm her. When her desperate sister, Greer, arrives, she must face a disturbing question: What if no one really knows Meredith at all? For Greer, finding her sister isnâ€™t going to be easyâ€¦because where sheâ€™s looking is going to get very, very dark.
